United Cutlery's Crysknife of Paul Atreides is an exact reproduction of the actual filming prop used in the movie, "Dune". The replica is intricately crafted of high-quality polyresin with precisely-molded details, rich coloring and a metallic finish on the handle. It can be displayed on its polystone wall display, which is sculpted in the form of the hawk sigil of House Atreides. A certificate of authenticity is also included to assure customers of its value and officially licensed status.
