You can count on the M48 Tanker Combat Dagger to back you up when things get out of control. It is an absolute beast of a fixed blade knife that's built for defense. The dagger has a hefty, 4 1/4" double-edged blade that goes down to a sharp penetrating point and it has a blood groove. It has a one-piece, CNC machined 3Cr13 stainless steel, solid and heavy-duty construction with a stonewashed finish. The ridged and perforated handle is grippy and the open-ring pommel provides an extra measure of control when using. The 9 1/2" overall combat dagger snaps securely into a tough Kydex sheath with a metal belt clip and lashing holes.
